Latest Development In The News

"As of October 2010 foreclosure inventories were 7.4 times greater than historical averages and rising."

Industry sources state the need for lenders, mortgage servicers and real estate professionals to work together.

High loan defaults, declining home values and rising short sales and foreclosures are showing little sign of easing. Today's market requires real estate professionals to acquire different skills. Real estate companies need to be full service providers knowledgeable in short sales, BPOs and REOs to maximize financial recovery for holders of troubled assets and REO portfolios, and serve the needs of buyers.

Register for the latest short sale, BPO and REO laws, guidelines, procedures and checklists to be successful in today's current real estate market.

SHORT SALE COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

LAUNCHING THE SHORT SALE UNDER THE S.A.F.E. ACT

Learn the importance of early intervention, default counseling, and the details of the Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing (S.A.F.E.) Act including curable and incurable loss mitigation defaults. The qualifications, procedures and necessary documents to work with loss mitigation will be discussed. An overview of the tasks that real estate professionals are allowed to perform in short sale transactions under the new S.A.F.E. Act law will be covered. Students will also learn about the various clauses, lender discount guidelines, the US Treasury’s Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternative (HAFA) program, and working with buyers regarding deficiencies under the Mortgage Forgiveness Act of 2007. Detailed reading material and resources on loss mitigation programs for Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, FHA, VA, FDIC, credit unions and credit restoration will be provided.

UNDER SIEGE: BALANCING REOS AND SHORT SALES

Gain a better understanding of the new laws and skills needed to handle REO and short sale transactions including the paperwork involved. Changes in the mortgage arena, down payment assistance programs and closing the transaction will be addressed. This course will also cover credit, credit scores, budgeting, rebuilding our communities, scams and fraud.
